This document contains all you need to know about the cookie policy adopted by Mevis SpA as data controller.

What are cookies

Cookies are small text files that websites visited by a user send and store on the user's computer or mobile device, so that they can be transferred to the same websites the next time the user visits them. Cookies allow a website to remember the actions and preferences of users.

There are different types of cookies, with different characteristics and functions, which may remain on the user's computer or mobile device for different periods of time. In particular, these include:
